Thank you for your letter of 12 November indicating your desire to be attached to this organization.

We have not formed a reserve organization for this agency, and do not anticipate doing so. A number of our employees are reserve officers, but their status with us is that of full time civilian employees. It is also our policy not to accept the assignment of reserve officers for short periods of active duty as our work is such that short term duty is not productive.

I do appreciate the interest you have evinced in the Central Intelligence Agency, and regret I cannot make a more favorable reply.

Sincerely,

Signed
